

Getting to Know Curley's Wife

On your own... What is your opinion of Curley's wife?	After sharing opinions with your group... Record the opinion of one or more of your classmates here. How are their opinions different from yours?
After looking at the passages from the text... What do you think John Steinbeck's opinion of Curley's wife is based on what he wrote?	After reading Steinbeck's letter... How do you think Steinbeck intended to portray her character? Was he successful in your opinion?
After looking at all the perspectives... Has your opinion of Curley's wife changed? Explain why or why not. What perspectives influenced you?	